

Think of us as a graphics supermarket.

Let's more here than meets the eye

A supermarket collection of graphics equipment and talent.

Doesn't look like a supermarket. But let's take a second look--inside. There's an attractive color brochure on the two-color press. A carbonless business form is quietly humming it's way through the new digital duplicator. Art (made earlier) for a sign is going into the new sign scanner. And there's a business form in advanced-design stage on one of the computer screens. Upstairs, a silk-screen with a local firm's logo is being made ready to print T-shirts. It's a graphics supermarket all right. And it's all right here. Ready to help you.
